4TH OF JULY CELEBRATED

Bridgeton's 33rd Annual Fourth of July Parade was once again a huge success. This year's theme was "Music of America". A special thanks to the Parade Marshals of the parade, Babe Quartet and members of City Voice Chorus, for providing barbershop music throughout the parade. The quartet participated in honor of Bonnie Murphy who lost her battle to cancer, served on the Special Events Commission and was a member of City Voice Chorus.

I'd like to personally thank each and every individual who helped plan the parade and judge the competitions and to everyone who participated in the festivities. Thanks go to the members of the Special Events Commission and our judges Vann Hahn, Ginger Noblitt, Emily Jabobi, Kathy Schrupf, Trish Hurlbut and Joe Hood for their efforts. Thanks again for your hard work.
